HIPAA Notice of Patient Privacy Practices

- This notice describes how your health information may be used and disclosed and how you can access this information. Please review it carefully.
- At Dr. George D. Papanicolaou MD, PA we have always kept your health information secure and confidential. A new law requires us to continue maintaining your privacy, to give you this notice and to follow the terms of this notice.
- The law permits us to use or disclose your health information to those involved in your treatment. For example, a review of your file by a specialist doctor whom we may involve in your care.
- We may use or disclose your health information for payment of your services with your authorization. For example, we may send a report of your progress to your insurance company.
- We may use or disclose your health information for our normal healthcare operations. For example, one of our staff will enter your information into our computer.
- We may share your medical information with your business associates, such as a billing service. We have a written contract with each business associate that request them to protect your privacy.
- We may use your information to contact you. For example, we may send newsletters or other information or other information. We may also want to call and remind you about your appointments. If you are not home, we may leave this information on your answering machine or with the person who answers the telephone.
- In an emergency, we may disclose your health information to a family member or another person responsible for your care.
- We may release some or all of your health information when required by law.
- If this practice is sold, your information will become the property of the new owner.
- Except as described above, this practice will not use or disclose your health information without your prior written authorization.
- You may request in writing that we not use or disclose your health information as described above. We will let you know if we can fulfill your request.
- You have the right to know of any used or disclosures we make with your health information beyond that above normal uses.
- As we will need to contact you from time to time, we will use whatever address or telephone number you prefer.
- You have the right to transfer copies of your health information to another practice. We will mail your files for you.
- You have the right to see and receive a copy of your health information. With a few exceptions. Give us a written request regarding the information you want to see. If you also want a copy of your records we may charge you a reasonable fee for the copies.
- You have the right to request an amendment or change to your health information, give us your request to make changes in writing. If you wish to include a statement in your file, please give it to us in writing. We may or may not make the changes you request, but will be happy to include your statement in your file. If we agree to an amendment or change, we will not remove or alter earlier documents, but will add new information.
- You have the right to receive a copy of this notice.
- If we change any of the details of this notice, we will notify you of the change at your next appointment after the effective date of the change.
- We reserve the right to have your medical records and files reviewed by our corporation's attorney as part of our medical quality assurance.
- You may file a complaint with the Department of Health and Human Services, 200 Independence Avenue, SW, Room 509-F, Washington, DC 20201. You will not be retaliated against for filing a complaint.
- However, before filing a complaint, or for more information, or assistance regarding your health information privacy, please contact our office at 407-478-3151.

This notice goes into effect as of April 14, 2003

PATIENT LIABILITY FORM

I. Financial Agreement

Our office will file your insurance according to your individual plan(s); however, you are responsible for deductibles, co-pays or co-insurances at the time of service.

Outside Facility Fees

Procedures performed incurring fees in outside facilities (i.e., surgery centers, radiology testing &/or reading fees, labs, etc.) are separately billed to you by that entity and will NOT include fees for our physician's services rendered in that facility. These are due and payable separately.

Referrals, Authorizations, Insurance Coverages

Referral numbers and authorizations by insurance plans are required prior to time of service; otherwise fees associated with services become your liability. If you do not have the required authorizations/referrals at the time of visit, you understand it may be necessary to reschedule the appointment.

I acknowledge it is my responsibility:

- To understand my insurance plan's coverages, limitations, requirements.
- To obtain all necessary authorization(s) &/or referral(s) from any other physicians or facilities as required for treatment and payment by my insurance company to Dr. Papanicolaou.
- To verify and understand my specific plan coverages regarding In/Out-of-Network providers.
- To remit full payment of my account balance as requested up front &/or after services rendered, if my insurance plan denies payment for any of the above listed reasons.

•I am responsible for the whole account balance amount due if I have no insurance. PATIENT INITIALS _____

II. Assignment of Insurance Benefits

I authorize direct payment of medical benefits to George Papanicolaou MD for services rendered. I understand I am financially responsible for any balance not covered by my insurance company. / understand and agree if I receive direct payment from my insurance company, I am personally responsible for disbursement of payment directly to the physician. A photocopy of these assignments shall be valid as the original.

III. Health Information Release

I hereby authorize treatment of myself by George Papanicolaou MD, and authorize the release of any medical information, including information related to psychiatric care, drug and alcohol abuse and HIV/ AIDS, confidential information necessary to process insurance claims or any medical information that is needed for any utilization review or quality assurance activities, unless specified otherwise by me below.

In case of any dispute regarding our services with any entity, company or institution, I waive the right to privacy under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996. PATIENT INITIALS _____

Patient Appointment & Procedure Cancellation Policy

Patient Name: _____

Date of Birth: _____

Soma Plastic Surgery is committed to providing timely, high-quality care for all patients. When appointments or procedures are canceled without sufficient notice, it prevents us from offering that time to other patients in need. To help us serve everyone effectively, the following cancellation policy applies.

Outpatient Surgery

- Any deposit paid to secure a surgery date is non-refundable.
- Patients who cancel or reschedule an outpatient surgery with less than two(2) weeks' notice will be charged 20% of the total surgical fee.
- If a fully paid surgery is canceled less than 72 hours before the scheduled procedure, no refund will be issued.

In-Office Procedures

Patients who cancel or reschedule an in-office procedure with less than 48 hours' notice will be charged a $250 cancellation fee.

Office Visits

Patients who cancel or reschedule an office visit with less than 48 hours' notice, or who fail to arrive for their scheduled appointment ("no-show"), will be charged a $50 cancellation fee.

Cancellation fees are the patient's responsibility and are not billable to insurance. Payment of outstanding cancellation fees may be required before scheduling future appointments or procedures.

We understand that unexpected emergencies and unforeseen circumstances can occur. If you experience an emergency that affects your ability to keep your appointment or scheduled surgery, please notify our office as soon as possible. Emergency situations will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis, and the practice reserves the right to waive cancellation fees or modify the refund policy at the physician's discretion.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read, understand, and agree to this Cancellation Policy.
